Thank you for your letter regarding the Ontario College of Teachers' recommendations concerning the introduction of time limits for making and communicating registration decisions relating to domestic labour mobility applicants under the Fair Access to Regulated Professions and Compulsory Trades Act, 2006. I appreciate the time you have taken to write.

As the largest professional regulator in the country your feedback is important to us. We your comments, specifically those regarding the implementation of these new time limits as they may relate to third parties, reporting and tracking systems, as well as unique circumstances. We will reach out to our colleagues at the Ministry of Education, in order to better understand some of these concerns.
